BEST PRICE!

If Oprah likes it, it must be good.

The good folks over at Shaklee were kind enough to send over their fabulous Get Clean cleaning kit to the ThisNext office. I was over the moon with excitement because well- I love cleaning.

This kit was a monster \(yes that's a good thing\) it was full of products, so many that I doubt I will have to purchase another cleaning product for at least a year. Why?

Everything was either in concentrate form or it was in form of refillable bottle (with refills included).

The packaging is a delight for the eyes; adorably eco-friendly looking labels with dogs, butterflies, and leaves. The scent of the products were clean (hence the name); in fact a fellow employee said "This stuff smells good, like...like soap." There is something very refreshing and clean feeling about smelling like soap instead of some smelly perfume like chemical. Oh and the kicker- this stuff actually cleans!

A special deal alert for the ThisNext Blog- go to the Shaklee site before May 31 and get the Healthy Home kit for 33% percent off the regular price which will bring the grand total to \$55.
